(207) 974-4651 | pburmeister@emcc.edu

Pilar Burmeister graduated from the University of Texas Medical Branch with her bachelor's degree in Nursing, and then earned her master's in Nursing as a Nurse Practitioner at Menonite College of Nursing. She continued her education with a post-master's in Nursing Education from Husson University. She has worked in nearly every area of nursing in her 29-year career; favorite jobs included working in the newborn nursery and teaching at EMCC. She lives in Ellsworth with her husband and two of her four children — the other two are grown. She loves baking, cake decorating, scrapbooking, and traveling.
