

AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY FACULTY

CHRISTOPHER DAVIS, CHAIR

(207) 974-4803 | cdavis@emcc.edu

Christopher Davis spent the first 17 years of his career working as an auto technician before joining EMCC as an Automotive Technology faculty member. Chris is a graduate of the Automotive Technology program at EMCC. He started out as an apprentice technician, and moved his way up to shop foreman at Rawcliffes Garage, specializing in foreign cars.

Chris is ASE certified as a Master Automotive Technician, with additional certifications in L1 Advanced Engine Performance, L3 Light Duty Hybrid/Electric Vehicle Specialist, X1 Exhaust Systems, G1 Auto Maintenance and Light Repair, and A9 Light Vehicle Diesel engines.

HUNTER HAVEL

(207) 974-4809 | hhavel@emcc.edu

Hunter Havel is a graduate of the Automotive Technology program at SMCC. Hunter spent his first eight years working as an auto technician and became a General Motors Gold level technician. Hunter then Taught for eight years at Hancock County Technical Center. Before joining EMCC as an Automotive Technology faculty member.

Hunter is ASE certified as a Master Automotive Technician, with additional certifications in L1 Advanced Engine Performance, X1 Exhaust Systems, G1 Maintenance and Light Repair, and Undercar Specialist.