

Resources for support and resolution for Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Sexual Harassment and Stalking

If you are in an emergency situation, please call 911

On-Campus Resources

EMCC's Title IX Coordinator can help you:

- Learn about the options and resources available to you
- File an official complaint with the College
- File a complaint with local police authorities
- Receive medical attention or have evidence collected at a hospital
- Request supportive measures such as a no-contact order, changing classes or housing.
- Access counseling resources

Elizabeth True

Title IX Coordinator

etrue@emcc.edu

207-974-4673

If you need immediate assistance outside of business hours, please contact EMCC's after hours Security at 745-6090. You may ask for their assistance or instead request a call from the Title IX Coordinator or the College Counselor. Security will ask if you are safe and for your call-back number.

Counseling Services/Confidential Resource Advisor

Free, confidential counseling from our College Counselor, Dr. Salena King-Caruso, is available by appointment. Please contact her at Counseling@emcc.edu or 207-974-4858. After hours, if you need emergency assistance, please contact Security at 745-6090 for assistance.

Off-Campus Resources

Law Enforcement

You may contact local law enforcement directly or ask EMCC staff to help you coordinate contact or support you through that process. The Title IX Coordinator will help you contact the local police so they can send an officer to initiate a report.

To contact law enforcement directly, you can call 911 if you are in an emergency situation, or you can call your local police for the town in which the assault occurred.

Bangor Police Department
207-947-7382

East Millinocket Police Department 207-746-3555

Dover-Foxcroft Police Department (207) 564-8021

Maine State Police – 2207-973-3700 or 1-800-432-7381

Maine Coalition Against Sexual Assault

The Maine Coalition Against Sexual Assault (MECASA) provides a 24-hour statewide sexual assault crisis and support line. You may contact MECASA if you would like to:

- Learn about options
- Access a victim's advocate or counselor
- Request medical attention or to have evidence collected at the hospital
- File a police report

Maine Coalition Against Sexual Assault – 1-800-871-7741

Hospitals

To seek immediate medical attention or to request that physical evidence be collected in case you wish to file a police report now or in the future, you can go directly to one of the area's hospitals. However, you may wish to call in advance to confirm that a trained Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner(SANE) is on duty. MECASA can also help you find the closest hospital with a SANE on duty.

St. Joseph Hospital – 360 Broadway, Bangor 907-1000

Northern Light Eastern Maine Medical Center – 489 State St., Bangor 973-7000

Domestic Violence Resources

Partners for Peace is a domestic violence resource center for Penobscot and Piscataquis counties.

24-hour helpline: 1-800-863-9909

Confidentiality

We make every effort to keep your report confidential and provide you with options. However, EMCC staff, are identified as mandated reporters. That means we have to follow Maine state reporting laws. If we think you are under 18 and you tell us any information that makes us think you are being abused or neglected, we may have to share this with other adults to help keep you safe.

The College Counselor is a Confidential Resource Advisor who can provide confidential assistance and counseling.

Amnesty Policy:

Students who report a complaint of sexual misconduct are not held responsible for violations of the College alcohol and drug policy that they may disclose as part of an investigation.

Eastern Maine Community College is committed to maintaining a safe learning and working environment for our students and employees. Sexual harassment, sexual assault and domestic violence have no place in our learning community. For more information on EMCC's policies and procedures to prevent and respond to these crimes, see:

<https://www.emcc.edu/title-ix/>